

What is Kiuwan Code Security (SAST)?

Kiuwan Code Security is a SAST solution that scans your code to identify and remediate security vulnerabilities.

It complies with the most stringent security standards and covers all important programming languages. It is a cloud-based solution but offers the possibility of analyzing your source code locally.

Continuous subscriptions also include an IDE plugin to help developers work more efficiently.

Learn more about it on our here.